

Growing Up Outdoors the next steps: children's health and the outdoors

3 December 2009

Contents

Plenary papers

Welcome and introduction by Chair	6
Marcus Sangster, Forestry Commission
'Its fun to play about in': children and the outdoors - setting the scene	7
Liz O'Brien, Forest Research
The importance of children's and young people's experience	13
Catharine Ward Thompson, OPENspace
How do we integrate this work into the NHS agenda?	18
Dr William Bird, Outdoor Health Forum
Case study 1 - Physical Activity at Forest School	19
Rebecca Lovell, Forest Research
Case study 2 - Eco-adventure. Combining activity, health and the curriculum in residential visits	24
Steve Tiling, Field Studies Council
Case study 3 - NHS Forest project	25
Sarah Dandy, Knowledge into Action

Supporting papers

Appendix A - Programme	26
Appendix B - Speaker Biographies	28
Appendix C - Attendance List	32
Appendix D - Presentation slides from all speakers	40