

CONTENTS

Foreword	(v)
Welcome	1
Richard Broadhurst, Senior Recreation Officer , Forestry Commission, CRN Chairman
The Role of Community Action in Rural Recreation and Tourism	3
Bernard Lane, Rural Tourism Unit, Department of Continuing Education University of Bristol
Discussion Summary	11
Community Action - An Overview
Jeff Bishop and Jo Rose, BDOR Ltd	14
Panel 1: Working with Communities
I - Pentrefoelas and Groes Berwyn Evans, Menter Hiraethog	30
II - Groundwork Janet Honey, Groundwork Erewash	37
Discussion Summary	43
Panel 2: Woods and Water
I - Community Woodland Planning The Forest Authority (Scotland) Approach Graham Cullen, The Forestry Authority (Scotland)	45
II - The Medway River Project Brian Smith, Medway River Project	49
Discussion Summary	54
Panel 3: Welsh and English Perspectives on Community Initiatives
I - Welsh Perspective on Community Initiatives Gareth Davies, Forestry Commission	56
II - Action with Communities in Rural England Rhys Taylor, ACRE/Rural Action	62
Discussion Summary	68
List of Workshops	70
Monitoring and Review of the Effectiveness of Programmes
Tony Bovaird, Aston Business School	71

Discussion Summary	87
Drawing the Threads Together Professor Philip Lowe, Centre for Rural Economy, University of Newcastle	89
An Agenda for Action? Gareth Roberts, Countryside Council for Wales	102
Discussion Summary	118
Closing Remarks Richard Broadhurst, Senior Recreation Officer, Forestry Commission, CRN Chairman	121
List of Participants	125