

CONTENTSSECTION 1 - SCOPE OF PROJECT

1.	Introduction	10
1.1	Definitions	10
1.2	Factors Contributing to Social Exclusion	13
1.3	Identifying the Socially Excluded	16
2	Social Inclusion And Leisure Provision	20
2.1	Welfarism, Merit Goods and Social Inclusion	20
2.2	Citizenship and Social Inclusion	21
2.3	Critiques of Social Exclusion	22
2.4	Social Exclusion within Pluralistic Provision	24
3	Countryside Recreation Participation	25
3.1	Attitudes	25
3.2	Reasons for Non-participation	27
3.3	Participation and Social Exclusion	28
4	Participation Characteristics	30
4.1	Participation, Age and Gender	30
4.2	Participation, Health and Disability	31
4.3	Participation and Ethnic Origin	32
4.4	Participation and Social Class	36
5	Conclusions from the Literature Review	39

SECTION III - METHODOLOGY

6	Approach to Selecting Class	40
6.1	Project Identification	40
6.2	Shortlist	41
6.3	Field Visits	41

SECTION IV - CASES

7	The Cases	46
7.1	Fairbridge Edinburgh	46
7.2	The Big Issue in Scotland	50
7.3	Midlothian Council	54
7.4	PACE Project - Surrey County Council/London Borough of Croydon	57
7.5	NT Inner City Project	62
7.6	Northamptonshire County Council	68
7.7	Greenwood Community Forest	72
7.8	Antrim Borough Council	75
7.9	Black Environment Network	78
7.10	Mendip Hills AONB	83
7.11	Glodwick Community Outreach Project	86
7.12	Youth Route 70	89

SECTION V - SUMMARY OF FINDINGS

8	Key Drivers Behind 'Effective' Initiatives	92
8.1	Community Driven	94
8.2	Empowerment as an Objective	96
8.3	Social Cohesion as an Objective	98
8.4	Promotion of Partnerships	100
8.5	The 'Right' People - 'Outreach' Staff vs. 'Countryside' Staff	101
8.6	Assessed by Both 'Quantitative' and 'Qualitative' Indicators	103
8.7	Effective Marketing	104
9	Factors Which Limit 'Effectiveness'	106
9.1	Financial Resources	106
9.2	Human Resources	106
9.3	Project Dependency	107
10	Concluding Remarks	107
11	References	108