

Contents

Welcome and Introduction - Richard Broadhurst, Chair CRN

Today's Thinking - Ian Mercer, Chief Executive, Countryside Council For Wales

Tomorrow's Countryside - Terry Robinson, Head of Recreation Access, Countryside Commission

Landscapes for Tomorrow - Chris Wood, Information Officer, Yorkshire Dales National Park

Achieving Sustainability in the Countryside - Roger Levett & Joan Bennett, Consultants, CAG

New Roles for Rangers? - Yvonne Hosker, Trainer, Training and Advice Service

Brave new World - Or What? - Robin Grove-White, Director, Centre for the Study of Environmental Change, Lancaster University

Workshops

Funding Alternatives to the Private Car - David Holding, Senior Lecturer, Newcastle Business School, University of Northumbria

"Travelling Light" - Andy Gale, Countryside Commission

Sustrans and the National Cycle Network - Philip Insall, Press & Information Officer, Sustrans

Greenways: Environmentally Sensitive Recreational Travel - Rob Owen, Senior European & Sponsorship Officer, Countryside Council for Wales

Recommissioning the 'MV Swift' - Brian Eaton, Senior Lecturer, Coventry Business School

Hand-held Computers and terminals for Asset Management - Glenn Millar, British Waterways & Anne Glover, Assistant, Pennine Way Co-ordination Project

Exploring the Internet - Nicky Ferguson, Director, Social Science Information Gateway, University of Bristol

Access Management for the Millennium - Tony Philpin, Co-ordinator, Pennine Way Co-ordination Project

Contingent Valuation: The Economic Benefits of Countryside Improvements - Mike Christie, Research Assistant, Macauley Land Use Research Institute

Managing Change in Countryside Recreation - Mel Jones & Mike Wild, Principal Lecturers, Sheffield Hallam University

Visitors and Residents in the Erne Lakeland, Northern Ireland - Kimberley Dyer, Research Assistant, University of Ulster

Sustainable Access - The Tir Cymen Model - Martyn Evans, Countryside Council for Wales

Tourism, Environment and the Shannon-Erne Waterway - Claire Guyer (Lecturer) & John Pollard (Senior Lecturer), University of Ulster

Getaway Girls and Wild Outdoor Women - Michael Collins, Senior Lecturer, Loughborough University

Community Forests - Gary Charlton, Recreation Officer, Great North Forest

Climbing and Conservation - Jeremy Barlow, Access and Conservation Officer, British Mountaineering Council