

Volunteering:
Strategies and Practice for Engaging Volunteers in Countryside Recreation and Management

CONTENTS

PLENARY PAPERS

Welcome and Introduction

(John Watkins, Countryside Council for Wales)

Strategic Overview - Government Policy, Scale and Scope of Volunteering

(Angela Ellis Paine, Institute for Volunteering Research, Volunteering England)

Volunteers - A Blessing or a Curse

(Miles Sibley, BTCV)

The Volunteers Perspective

(Henry Cole, Forestry Commission Volunteer)

The Volunteers Perspective

(Peter Ward, English Nature/RSPB Volunteer)

How to Make Best Use of Volunteers

(Sarah Jarvis, Volunteer Development Scotland)

Managing Risk with Volunteers

(Vicky Myers, Forestry Commission)

A Strategy for Volunteering

(Sean Prendergast, Peak District National Park Authority)

CASE STUDIES

Volunteering in Ireland

(Bill Murphy, Mountain Meitheal)

Involving New Audiences of Volunteers through Groups including Youth Volunteers

(Jennie Owen, National Trust)

The Worcestershire Wardens Partnership

(Andy Maginnis, Countryside Management Association)

SUPPORTING PAPERS

Annex A - Programme

Annex B - Speaker Biographies

Annex C - Delegate List

Annex D - Slide Handouts from Speakers