

CONTENTS

PLENARY PAPERS

Introduction and Welcome by Chair Sally Thomas, Countryside and Land Management Team, Scottish Government	6
Arts and the Outdoors: Scope, objectives and opportunities - emerging findings from a review for the Forestry Commission Dave Pritchard, Consultant	8
Case Study 1: Route to Health - Community Arts Trail Lisa Shephard, Arts Development, Cannock Chase District Council	13
Case Study 2: Dark Sky Scotland Dan Hillier, Visitor Centre Manager, Royal Observatory Edinburgh	16
Case Study 3: Happy Stacking - A contemporary vision of agriculture and culture culture Alistair Hudson, Deputy Director, Grizedale Arts	21
Artist: Working Outdoors with Art and the Community Susheila Jamieson, Sculptor	25
Artist: Wendy Carl von Weiler, Senior Lecturer, Sheffield Hallam University	29
Knockengorroch Music Festivals Liz and Simon Holmes, Artistic/Site/Co-ordination Directors, Knockengorroch Community Interest Company	34
Staging an Outdoor Event: Mid Argyll Half Like James Johnson, Designer, Get Made (working on behalf of NVA) and Nick Purdy, Forest District Manager, Forestry Commission Scotland	40 44

SUPPORTING PAPERS

Appendix A - Programme	47
Appendix B - Speaker Biographies	49
Appendix C - Delegate List	57
Appendix D - Slide Handouts from all speakers	59